Description

So , I Was looking to buy mailgun smtp account , the user {Devsoft} sent me a message and he said that he got a cracked account and he selling it .

he gave me his discord and then we moved to the discord.

when we spoke on the discord he told me that it will cost for me 25$ btc , and then he gave me his address and i sent him the money , he told me to wait for 1 confirm from the bitcoin , and then he will give me the details of the account that i was looking for !

after 10 minutes he went off , and he ignored all of my messages (theres also now more then 3 confirms on the bitcoin blockchain website) , anyway i got scammed by him.

Wow I had just posted on that thread. I would have been wary because it was such a specific request.

Did you use a contract? otherwise this is invalid, sadly.

All market place sales are required to use a contract. You can read about them on Omni's thread regarding contracts. You can also read Xerotic's thread on how to use them.
