Description

Everything will be explained & Clear on the Screens . At First this user replied on my thread " Buying Google Play Giftcards " once i added him he asked for itunes giftcard i was confused xDD maybe he is wrong but that was kinda weird . i Told him that im the Guy buying Google Play Giftcards. He Told that he have 300$ for now and he can get them up to 800$ tonight . he asked for a 65% as i didnt like it i offered him to get his Giftcards Sold for 750$ and he giv me 100$. He Accepted at first but when i asked for a contract he pretended like his source of giftcard didnt reply . Then he told me that he got the Giftcard just in 5minutes of the conversation starts(he said tonight) . I Insisted on a contract and he accepted then he told that he have 800+300 dollars . Everything was cool until i gived him Paxful.com to sell his Giftcards. Then Suddnely he Negative rated my market place profile and he started to say bullshits. Sorry for my bad english everything will be clearn on Screenshots (From start to end.) I Hope u can deal with LQ Member.

Is their even a staff on this forum? I never see any actually handling scam reports...

heybrotex - February 26, 2019, 9:00 am

thanks to let us know about this scammer

How is this a scam attempt? And for 750$?

Ive read both your disputes and the contract states that you find a buyer for his giftcards and you can earn 100$ by doing so, then you tell him to go on paxful and find a buyer himself to exchange with and you expect him to pay you 100$ for that?

You also state that YOU are buying giftcards, which is not right since you just direct him to paxful and tell him to "Just chose one, there all online and complete in 5 mins" cmon man, thats just silly to say it nicely..

The only scam i see is you trying to make 100$ by telling someone to go on paxful and exchange his giftcards when the deal clearly is that YOU bring the customer to him.....

PS. Tell us more about the method where you "double cards 500% in a week"

OK contact nice but staff doesn't get involved.

Sometimes omni will close them so try being patient buddy.

I'm not sure how its a scam attempt. Did he not pay you the $100 or he hasn't paid you it? I'm confused on that part, sorry.

Also I would say paxful is not the best suggestion in this case :D Its bad rates for almost every method you find lol especially with the garbage fees they been raising up.

That's completely fair bro ? He agreed that is what he was looking for, you provided it. I would say this is valid in that case, sorry for my misunderstanding I do think it should be emphasized the fact that you did give the user what he was paying for and did not receive what he had promised. ?

I think you need to read the dispute and contract again, but im not sure you will understand since you are special, actually so special that you will cypaste an old dispute and try to make it your own to scam users....
