Thread: What have You Rewatched the Most?

N1ghtm4re - February 28, 2019, 2:30 pm

What series do you think you've Rewatched the most, and why do you go back?

I've probably rewatched these the most:

Death Note

Kenichi the Mightiest Disciple

Air Gear

Reason Being I enjoy the story from all three, I enjoy the Fights from Kenichi, the Comedy from Air Gear, and the Suspense of Death Note.

What about you? Doesn't have to be three, can be one... but I think I've watched those three about an equal amount.

Pikachu - February 28, 2019, 3:28 pm

I've rewatched the Magi series a few times, idk why but i just really enjoy the story.

Late response, but same here actually. Just recently rewatched all three seasons again [counting Adventures of Sinbad], think this was the third full watchthrough.

Other than Magi, I've also watched Hyouka 4-5 times lol.

I've been rewatching this a lot recently, I really enjoy how the story is put together. I'm using it for research/influence on how I should write my story.

OP says anime. The stuff you listed is infact chinese cartoons translated to english, which is irrelevant to the japanese cartoons we are talking about
