User is selling a Amazon Gift Card method that he claims does not involve any blackhat - illegal activity.

Method 100% involve's illegal items.

Would love a refund.

IceCaptain - March 3, 2019, 3:28 am

Can you please make some screenshots to back up your points?

SIM-3777840 - March 3, 2019, 3:39 am

Only type of screenshots that will back me up, would involve the spreading of his method... I do not wish to break any type of ToS....

But If it is needed for me to share, I will share.

viezesletjes - March 3, 2019, 6:27 am

Vouch for OP. DWC with SORRIE. Dodgy member, doesn't provide the service he promises on his site AND deliberately makes you purchase outside of HF so he doesn't have a contract. CARE with him.

Deal with caution for this member, will scam soon

Contract boosting multi

Also the method involves NO illegal activity, please pm me what you think is illegal

HOMODIN - March 3, 2019, 6:32 am

On one hand, if it contains blackhat methods then it's technically against the rules here so in a way...so if it really is blackhat then well, the staff might be interested in it as in getting it removed and the member warned/banned for a while ;)

Like the person above me said, if it's illegal = blackhat, pm Omni. Snitches get stitches tho btw jk lol or not Jk.

But yeah there's no way Omni can know if the method isn't what was advertised if... he doesn't receive the method lol.

Report ANYONE who refuses to use contracts. Directly to Omni/staff. They'll likely get hit hard with closure or a 6 month ban or contract banned

Considering the item purchased is obtained illegally. I believe this Violates the ToS of HackForums.

So, may i get a refund or shall I share the method with Omni so he can review it and have his word in it?

Considering that matter is Illegal, I will gladly share the method with him if needed.

Thanks for the NEGATIVE Pop considering you know your item is ILLEGAL. Will inform OMNI of your method!

Glad to hear that. He deserves it.
Dude sold bunch of "methods" with help of his friends. Now they should all get ban.

Zoomers - March 9, 2019, 10:48 am

Lmao was dead with sorrie threatened xd

SIM-3777840 - March 10, 2019, 12:45 am

User is banned, not sure if staff banned him or if it was a self implanted ban for a temp rebrand and come back to screw more people over.

the method I bought involves 100% Blackhat methods.

They work of course, but they are blackhat and OP said its 100% safe and no illegal activity to be done.
