Hello,

This thread is aimed more toward Fashion Enthusiasts. I'm developing my own brand, and I'm experimenting with the best Hoodies and Shirts to print on for my Brand.

I'm looking for the Best Heavy Hoodie to print on. Preferably a Pull-Over style hoodie. I'd like it to be Thick and great Quality.

Mostly looking for Black Hoodies. I've been doing research of my own but I'm not crossing too many good options I don't think.

Gildan is only used because they're affordable at decent quality lol, I'm not attempting to produce a brand that'll only be relevant in my city. Thus, I cannot and won't use Gildan.
