Oh hey you ?

Given that prices are so low now it's actually extremely tempting, and having a blue username looks weird AF. I'm so used to having a white username.

I'm not active much on HF anymore, maybe around next Winter where I stay home alot because it's freezing outside.

I'm currently looking to buy a summer car.

That's the best offer on this thread, I'm pretty confident it'll be considered.
