Thread: [\[Board suggestion\] A posting board related to tattoos?](#)

SIM-3205632 - March 7, 2019, 12:53 am

Since I see alot of users on here have tattoo's and I'm interested in getting one maybe it would be nice to have a board where we could discuss tattoo related subjects?
Just a suggestion ofcourse. ?

I have a tattoo on my upper arm. Since it was my first tattoo, I wanted it have strong meaning to me and I made the right choice. The process of me getting a tattoo was amazing. Yeah, it was painful but it was a sweet feel of pain that for some reason I want to feel again. Another tattoo would be great. I have some designs in mind but can't decide which is the best and where should I do them.

Have you find a design OP? Would you mind sharing?

Moved your thread to the suggestions section as that's where it belongs.

On topic, I don't think there's nearly enough activity to warrant it's own section. It would be good if you could find 10-15 recent threads relating to this subject.

Maybe a sub-forum under the personal life forum?

I'm not interested in tattoos but I always like to see what other people put on their boddies :)

I don't think it will be an active section but we all can give it a shot. Who knows!

I've also done this, however I would agree with maybe a sub forum under the VICES section, having it's own section would be a waste I think but the sub forum could be good.

A subforum is what I was referring too sorry if it wasn't clear enough.

I was thinking of something simple on my hand but I'm not too sure yet.

Not enough activity to justify a subforum.

Dragosthethird - March 7, 2019, 8:50 pm

I agree not nearly enough activity. Post more threads and it might one day get a subforum. But I can't say this would be approved

I don't know if this specifically has been suggested before, but I know numerous suggestions for sub-forums have been denied for lack of activity or not enough posts to suggest it's own SF. I would just post this type of thing in the lounge.
