If a users account is closed permanently why is their signature purchase still valid?

The user who purchased my sig space has been banned/closed for a good amount of time. Yet he's allowed to advertise still.

Ah you cant dispute contract on closed member? I figure Staff would simply see the dispute and solve this.

I would suggest you Contact staff but I am not sure if you should.

I've also had this however I got my signature removed, I'm pretty sure you could ask to get it removed however you won't be able to put it on the market until the end date regardless as he's still essentially paid for it.

I was getting so many pms about it and it was annoying me.

You asked to get it removed or it just got removed in time?

I asked for it to be removed, however it means that it's not purchasable until the end date.
