Vendors

Vendors have a new private forum that will be used for assisting Vendors and Marketplace discussions.

You must be in the Vendor group to view it and participate.

Love it! Will check it out now. I've been missing this.

Great addition, this is a well needed section

Sounds like a great idea! Sadly this addition will never benefit me but I have been loving all the updates being added to the forum recently. It's the reason I was inspired to come back to the community in the first place.

Wow. Great addition. Hope being able to afford it one day. It's a great incentive

Good move that will attract even more people into buying V3ndor! Hope it'll be a quality, actually helpful for its members sf.

Good work. First a Vendors Page and then a Vendors forum.

Fuck it, just sent you a pm for approval. I want in.
