Since you paid through PayPal try to get your money back there are many methods

Deus_ - March 8, 2019, 4:15 pm

What kind of shit luck is this?

Well good bye 100€ Paypal...

SUI-3183372 - March 8, 2019, 4:19 pm

Charge back, even if sent as friends and family you can call and get it sorted out. If a support tech doesn't give you the answer that you want, hang up and call again.

Confirmed. I have done this, once I kept recalling 4 or 5 times they kept saying the same script until eventually someone who wasn't Indian answered and boom i got my money back..

OP was the sender, Paypal doesn't release shipping info to the money sender.

True, the only cases they do is when there is a police report in which case the police rarely get involved to the extent of contacting PayPal unless it is for a larger amount of money.

If police won't investigate someone robbing the gas station for $100 they likely won't investigate a 100 euro paypal scam ?

SORRIE's Discord account is claiming to be a hacker, talking as if they compromised SORRIE and others. Take it with a grain of salt, just wanted to disclose what they told me.

Looks like this dude has comcast lmaoo

dredos - March 9, 2019, 6:19 am

I'm so glad that guy is finally banned. He has few of his buddies too that are probably scammers too. Just check my rep, first 3 negative reps are by Sorrie and his buddies cause he felt vulnerable after I rewrote his giveaway thread the way it actually should've been written.

Sorrie is a kid, hiding behind "popular" account, just like a bunch of other members here.

iNviZ - March 9, 2019, 6:40 am

Knew that dude was a piece of shit. Op keep calling PayPal until you get someone who will help I suggest asking for an American call center.

Pyro - March 9, 2019, 7:01 am

he bought like 4 awards for $475 last month

Seems like he wanted to cash out that investment

Deal - March 9, 2019, 7:31 am

Sorry ass scammer.

He's such a fail trying to make it seem like he was hacked.

Even if he was it's his responsibility to secure his account.

SUI-3183372 - March 9, 2019, 9:23 am

It's not like he's banned yet, you guys keep talking like he's lost his awards. Once his vacation ban is over there's a good chance staff don't get involved and he remains an active member here.

Certain staff have already looked into this situation but I never heard if they were able to make any solid confirmation on whether or not SORRIE was in control of his account during the scams.

I say he was tbh. He scammed out on this forum and a competing forum before so I wouldn't put it past him to scam for $500+ when he's done it before and shown zero remorse

If he comes and repays the people who were scammed by his account (hacker or not) then maybe he can be reopened and lose his awards.

But over 10 years of being on HF and I still can't say with any degree of certainty what scam reports staff decide to get involved in and what scam reports they don't. Now, I'm under the impression they have a pretty good idea of what's going on in this situation, it has definitely caught their attention and some have stated their opinion on the topic, but it will ultimately come down to Omni and whether or not this catches his attention, he's the guy who swings the hammer in situations like this one.

So, does it matter? No.

However, would I be surprised to see SORRIE actively posting here in a couple of months? No.

Yeah I've actually never seen staff (mods/admins) post or involve themselves in deal disputes. Only since contracts were implemented have I seen Omni selectively take action against in deal disputes. As he did with this one! Another scammer gone! ?

I think it happens more often than we realize / care to admit, people like to jump to the "staff won't help, you're boned" argument pretty quickly. There isn't any certainty you'll get staff involvement, no matter how evident the scam may be, but I do know staff frequently monitor that forum and probe others for more information on certain scams.

HF is a great place to buy things, you just need to stop believing people when they blow smoke out of their ass. I don't know where else you can get amazing things like crypters, cheats, exchanges, etc.

Exactly. You just have to use your brain when it comes to buying stuff on here. Stop jumping towards make 10k/day for 9.99$ stuff and you'll be fine.

Of course, mostly everyone will run into a scam once in a while, but that's life.

can find same ones for free on other forums as pissed off customers will leak all them since such garbage and members dont honor the refund its the only option left
