Thread: New Lure Method

ProtoUltima - March 11, 2019, 5:25 pm

Hi guys,

I literally just got lured on OSRS and I've learned the lure they just did to me.

They managed to get 100m off of me, so I'm probably going to be able to make a lot more.

I need 2-3 people to help me with this. Works really well.

Let me know if you're interested

ProtoUltima - March 13, 2019, 2:17 pm

The thing is, you're not required to have any items.

I'm the only one that requires to have some cash and items. That's all.

Silent Uprising - March 26, 2019, 9:38 pm

If you don't want to say what lure. Can you say the IGN's of the people who lured you? I actually lured a dude for 100m just for fun though yesterday and 200m the day before that using a different lure method. Also I got mates actively luring, PM me the IGN's interested to know if I know any of them.

IceCaptain - March 28, 2019, 3:21 pm

the fact you fall for a lure in 2019 your a bad rs player.

Jimmie - March 29, 2019, 4:59 am

I'm pretty sure this was that stall lure which is patched now you stand in a area and do something and it puts you into a pvp zone.

That has not been patched.

Honestly I do not agree with this at all. There are some game mechanics/bugs that people just aren't aware of.

Also you can't lure pure morons because there brain is to fucking retarded to understand what's going on. It takes someone with a certain IQ to get lured. Honest. Luring someone who can speak like a normal human and not brain dead is so much easier. Getting 1b+, 2b+, 5b+, lures in 2019 is still a thing. This past year has probably been lures favorite year since 2013ish times of luring.

Not really. It was fair for me to bring it up. I was the one replying on the old posts anyways. I was just updating that it was patched the one I was refering to in the previous comment.

Do you play runescape? (osrs)

I mean that I should look because my original reply was about being interested, but after I made the post and saw your update as well as the og posts date, realized that that opportunity has come to a close! You're comment is fine!
