Contact their staff and make them aware of the issue. Hopefully they are nice and give you a constellation prize of some sort.

I mean, you should be a little more specific of what the website gives you for having these credits?

what should i do with them?If u like the forum contact the staff, if not abuse it I guess.

I remember reporting a bug on a shop I used and they promised me a prize even though I never asked but they never delivered which made me feel bad for reporting that shit.

Well then just do whatever you want with them, if it's only for pixels.

Most online things ran by kids or people in their mid twenties don't fully understand the how serious shit like that can be abused so you'll get fuck all for not abusing it.

Its better to just abuse it as much as possible and make as much money as you can. Just don't get caught.

Cluck Norris - March 14, 2019, 11:23 am

You should just go full send, abuse that shit and as other's have said, make a bunch of money in the meantime!

Very Complicated - March 14, 2019, 11:24 am

Try to find some kids that are willing to buy the credits and make some money off it.

Android 17 - March 14, 2019, 12:01 pm

Seeing as there's no real value to the credits outside of the forum, there's no real theft occurring. So, like others have said, go ahead and rack up until they patch it. Get what you want out of it and sell the rest.

Make sure you aren't traceable and abuse it honestly. Might as well have some fun before somebody else does.

Thanks for all the replies, exactly what I was thinking :) Already made €35

If you can make money off them then fuck it I wouldn't report it at all. I would abuse the piss out of it and make my money until they caught me.
