Thread: making steady autopilot income off ebay

Velial Squad - March 15, 2019, 9:01 pm

this has been going on for a week or two, finally found something that sells pretty good on ebay. some days i can get double, there has only been one day where i got nothing. feels good to have another autopilot income source :)

even though its small, its something. every day things get bigger, hoping to get this to $100-$200 a day

Autopilot with ebay? Don't you ought to sent the item? I guess you use dropping, right?
Nonetheless, congratulations buddy!

Auto-pilot until PayPal fks you up and asks for doc's and in the end limits your account until 180 days.

Goodluck with your sales/Paypal OP!

Congrats man and like others have said be careful with Paypal. Play it safe and try not to keep a lot of money in there
