Thread: How do you want to retire?

Slankey™ - March 16, 2019, 8:14 am

I've always loved the laws of maritime and sailing. From a young age my grandpa used to take me and my cousins out on his 21 foot sailboat and holy fuck was that fun.

I want to spend my days sailing the seas (not literally sailing because fuck that). Visiting different places I have always wanted to see. Wouldn't be that expensive.

Build a cabin in the woods, hunt my dinner, and just enjoy a natural state. Maybe grow some weed while I'm at it and brew some moonshines or some shit.

The countryside would do as well. Grew up and lived most of my life in the city, could really use some fresh air.

I want to finish training my oldschool runescape account

mnogohvashta - March 16, 2019, 8:36 am

I am a police officer
I hope I retire alive..

Zexi - March 16, 2019, 8:38 am

A house with a few rooms in the middle of nowhere like my fathers friend has.

Drinking coffee in a warm room next to a fireplace and shitposting on HF on one monitor and gaming/watching some shows on my second one.

Sounds dope.

Fuck I just realized I can't grow weed on a boat.

That's precisely what I'm doing. Only complaint is the fireplace is gas, I love that wood smell.

Still counts, gas is easier than wood when it comes to heating but more expensive.

This sounds really great. I think I would do same.

I want to have the money to retire by the time I'm 50, and I'll probably choose what to do then, in my country now retirement age is like 67 years old, fuck that shit.

Baring in mind, my current investments already bring me in around $500 per month doing nothing and completely autopilot, but I work full time IRL currently and also sell things online, I probably clear around $4k per month or so usually, so once I can make $5-6k a month autopilot, that is when I'll be retiring.

I've decided on how I want to retire since my trip to Tirol, Italy. I want to get a small house up there in the mountains. The air was so clean, the landscape was breathtaking. I want to live there with my wifey and make trips like a cute elderly couple ?

Leroy Jethro Gibbs - March 16, 2019, 11:58 am

I'd like to retire with money in the bank.

Mix - March 16, 2019, 12:42 pm

I want to retire at a young ish age and never have to worry about money or bills again. but sadly that wont happen.

Ram - March 16, 2019, 1:42 pm

I want to retire healthy :D cuz if u fucked up you cant do shit.

Astrogen - March 16, 2019, 5:21 pm

Live a simple life. Away from stress. Do things I wished to happen. Go to sea, sail around the world. Spend time with family, and just enjoy life.

Most especially, being able to have a fit body even if I'm old already.

Truuuuue that. Didn't really consider that. What if I can't walk by then. Fuck.

Xphile - March 16, 2019, 8:55 pm

I've always imagined buying a large home somewhere in the UK countryside, rural and leisurely retirement.

Tundery - March 16, 2019, 8:58 pm

I would like to retire comfortably but I don't really know when I will desire to. Depends on how I am in life at that time.

My wife and I plan to retire largely to our home in Peru. It's paid for and living is cheap down there. We've been pretty smart with our money since we got married, and are on track for a comfortable retirement even if we stayed here in the US fulltime. As I see it though, we'll probably spend fall and winter in Peru (summer time there), and spring/summer here at home in the US. Basically, we'll become snowbirds. Just, instead of Florida, it's a different country, lol.

Apocryphon - March 17, 2019, 6:08 pm

I want to own a villa with a pool in front of the beach. Oh I love the sea and warm weather.

I thought about doing something similar. Wish Mexico wasn't such a shithole.

Enslavement debts?

Thank you very much but my family is well off and I have multiple trust funds. In addition, social security. Dunno what you're on about.

Doesn't matter if you have $1, $2, or $0. Either way you pay, your entire family, and everyone you know either 1: pays taxes and is enslaved or 2: doesn't pay taxes and goes to jail.

You are just more enslaved by saying "idk what ur talking about dude i hav moneyyyy!! haha look at me! trust funds here and there xd im wealthy look at me! I even have social security!!!! U just a crazy guy talking nonsense!!"

By you denying that you are enslaved you are promoting literal lies. Do you even know why the IRS was formed? Do you know that those "federal" banks that you and your family keep money in are nothing but a social construct that we have been brainwashed to support? There is literally subliminal messaging that has been used by the government during the times of the MK Ultra mind control studies to test the entire population and see what it does to us. You know what the subliminal messages in our national anthem said during this broadcast on television? "OBEY CONSUME OBEY CONSUME", "TRUST US GOVERNMENT", "GOD IS REAL GOD IS WATCHING". Don't believe me? <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wofs8ZpcXIM>

You don't think you have been trapped and enslaved, but you have been a slave since the day you were born. You just didn't know it yet. There is nothing federal about the banks. They are all private companies that have nothing to do with the government yet they literally OWN almost any country in the entire world because everybody owes something no matter what. You pay off a big ol' expensive house? Guess what.. doesn't matter you still gotta pay property tax just to live on the land that you purchased and paid off. You refuse to do that and they will strip your land from you and sell it off in auction for extremely cheap to someone else that is going to pay the taxes you decide not to.

Do you not realize yet? Dude you are so dumb. I've seen you around this forum and you waste your time posting bullshit all day. How about you actually think outside the box for once. You can have all the money in the world, but as long as you are obeying the standards you will ALWAYS be paying something to the banks, no matter what.

Unfortunately you cannot negative rep me anymore than you have so you literally have 0 power over me with your shitty little dweeb rank.

Actually, don't listen to anything I've said in this reply. You aren't enslaved, the banks are federally owned by the government, taxes are good, health insurance should stay mandatory w/o any government help, we should keep our current laws relating to veterans, and we should continue to move the United States military over to Israel (the Jews/bankers with all the money). There ya go. Enjoy your existence. Don't look deeper into anything because I can already tell you're the type to turn on your typical news channel just absorb any information they throw at you and take it to heart.
