i'm sorry but your accounts worth about 30$.

my account is level 150, 1,300 games worth 2000$ on steamdb, + 3k hours on each game and it isnt worth more than 300$.

hf people are not idiots man.

info: most of your games are free, you are either trolling with the price or mentally stupid.

So good to hear that may be you could point me to the direction where I could buy such steam accounts for 30$. Go check out the marketplaces for steam accounts before talking. I'm not selling steam account for the first time.

More of the games are free- Where you mentally stupid from the inception or did it happen later in your life ?

are you a fucking idiot? you can buy these games for 80% of their price from plati.ru or g2a..

and these games are so fucking old and nobody plays them, and if someone wanna play for example assassins creeds, he wont buy a 600$ account to just play AC.

i think you're new to hf or any forums who have an iq to think.

go back and sell where u used to sell dude, none will buy this account for 600$ on hackforums unless his iq is less than a monkey.

Have to agree lol. Go on eBay and lookup steam accounts or playerauctions and you'll see why it isn't worth $300

I've got a lvl 120, 8 years, every game you listed and 1.2k more games but wouldn't expect more than a few hundred for it.

He's probably new here & doesn't know how it works.

@OP :- please check old steam shop threads or etc to get an idea
