Thread: NOTICE TO ANYONE DOING TUTORING OR EXPDEV WITH ME

MLT - March 18, 2019, 11:42 am

I have not had access to a PC for the last few days. I will be back soon. I would generally let you know via our off-site contact methods but I'm currently using a friend's phone so I can't install 3rd-party apps.

There's also an ongoing situation currently developing, can't go into much detail as of now but I need to watch my back for OPSEC reasons.

Dunno how to update signature via HF mobile otherwise I'd just do that.
Apologies for any inconvenience, I will make up for this by offering additional classes free of charge or by selling customized exploits at cheaper rates than agreed upon once they're developed.

Sorry for the delays

Can you still check your twitter DM via insecurity account? You should be able to without installing an app. I can't DM you on this site because I don't have 25 posts yet.

You can shoot them a PM instead of making a thread in Lounge

In his defense, I didn't have an account at the time (just signed up to contact him) so I would have missed it if he sent it out via PMs and it's probably easier for him to make one post than send out a bunch of PMs if he has a limited amount of time to access his friend's phone, although I probably would have favored some other method to reveal the info like email/Twitter since I'm restricted here.

MLT - March 29, 2019, 5:15 pm

So, some updates:

FBI have currently subpoena'd majority of my emails

I've found out they've been paying my "friend" to be my "friend" since 2014

They're attempting to tie me to a hack of Comcast that took place in 2014

They're claiming I harrassed a confidential informant / federal witness during an open case (the same "friend" who they've been paying to chat to me) right now, I'm assessing damage control and taking some precautionary measures. Despite not doing anything blackhat, I am not okay with the FBI illegally gaining warrants to subpoena my shit. If you're currently doing any form of dealings with me then stay away from Discord, lack of E2E crypto is one of many issues (don't even get me started on their ToS) - email me at m31337@aaathats3as.com (new throwaway email) or XMPP (OTR ONLY) at mlt@jabbb.im -- if this was an isolated incident, I wouldn't really care, but this is the culmination of several years of false accusations made by the likes of Krebs' and The Jester, resulting in LEA attention for things I had nothing to do with (for example they're trying to claim I've been using BTC / CC's to help fund ISIS despite the fact I helped disrupt many of ISIS/ISHD/CyberCaliphate's public operations.

I'll re-iterate, please do not reach out via Skype or Discord, or any of my old emails for that matter. XMPP W/ OTR only for IM's, otherwise message my throwaway email. This won't result in a raid, but I'm still assessing the situation and figuring out the best way to deal with it. I've made some FOIA requests to various law enforcement / intelligence agencies around the world and also reached out to some prominent figures in the OSINT / Threat Intel scene to try figure out where I currently stand.

Will keep you guys updated best I can. Situation is still unfolding as I type this message.

Likely this will amount to nothing, but for OPSEC reasons I'll not be working on any expdev or anything similar on platforms lacking sufficient E2E crypto. Documents were provided to me by a friend who was recently released from prison. I've also had 3 separate people who were recently arrested tell me the FBI had lots of questions about me, so seems they're trying to build YET ANOTHER phony case against me based upon lies created by The Jester (likely a government psyop ran by multiple people, rather than a single person as is commonly believed).

As soon as this situation is assessed fully, all services can resume normally on any platform. I just know that the feds are snooping right now and I don't like the idea of people snooping on me.

Thanks. Everything should be back to normal soon.

I was aware of those FBI documents almost a month ago, but 3 days ago several of my emails / social medias / IM channels have either been subpoena'd or have had subpoena requests made against them. At the end of the day, I haven't been doing anything blackhat... but try explaining that to the US Government when you're publicly tied with terrorist orgs due to past hacking associations.

Anyway @ anyone currently working on stuff with me -- hmu via XMPP at the address listed above. I've managed to get a client W/ OTR setup on the mobile device I'm currently using.

Also if Omni could shed some light as to whether subpoena requests have been made to HF, that'd be great.

I've booked a nice cottage in a remote location (with high-speed interwebz), I'm going to buy a fresh laptop to bring with me. Arriving there tomorrow as of 2PM GMT (just me and my doggo, so no distractions) -- I'll be there for one week while I clear my head, and I will have access to a working computer (omw to buy it tomorrow) for the duration of this week.

For now, I'll likely be keeping my posts restricted to The Lounge and non hacking-related forum sections.

Maybe an obvious question but it seems to be taking me an excessively long time to figure out how to use this program. Tried to make an account and my message says "service-unavailable". Maybe has to do with installing OTR. Can someone provide more information on this? Maybe recommend a client that's easy to use.

It depends on if you are using Windows or IOS.

For iOS chatsecure works good.

For iOS chatsecure works good.Windows and Android. Downloaded Gajim, that's where I got the error message. Tried Swift and also got the error message. Maybe has something to do with OTR if I were to guess but having trouble installing the plugin. Tried Converse through the browser but couldn't login to jibb.im (I guess each account is associated with each domain like email addresses?) . Just started with Pidgin which apparently has the plugin built in but has lots of extra chat sections so trying to figure out how to navigate/use it. There something simple to use that has OTR for Windows? Maybe someone can point me to a good guide on how to use this?

Will update once I've gleaned more info. I've made a FOIA request to the FBI but I'll be surprised if their response is anything other than that of a GLOMAR :P

I'm laying low as the situation unfolds more (despite the fact I've been whitehat for years now) -- I should be able to get online more frequently again now though.

That document looks forged and manipulated, I could tell there was layering added and the wording looks completely off. For one theres a whiter area that looks whiter then the background white and then in the corner you can see a 07/24/2010 date which would make 0 sense for a 2014 investigation, this looks like a really bad photoshop job. Whoever gave this to you might be pulling your leg. Iv'e seen real documents from LEEP because idiots used to social engineer access all the time back in the day and the documents look nothing like that so must be another law enforcement system FBI uses called CHS that i'm not familiar with.

2010 was when they initially opened their investigation into NullCrew, 2014 was when the individual who gave me this document was arrested. Also, CHS = "Covert Human Source" aka Confidential Informant. The document is 100% real. The guy who gave it to me is a member of NullCrew who just got out of prison and has absolutely no motive to be lying to me.
