Thread: Keeping PayPal from being limited

Lexi - March 18, 2019, 4:20 pm

Was wondering if anyone could teach me something here to keep a PayPal from being limited. Post and pm me please

- add a tracking number to each transaction (send a paper or something if you are selling digital good)

- don't use friend and family option

- don't get chargebacked

I've been exchanging for many years in the CE section and only had one inquiry.

If you have a new PP account don't do high amounts and use it as GS and not FF.

Try not using any reference regarding the exchanges on the transaction.

You ignored my post, hope you will get limited

If you exchange here, I will buy from you to get your PayPal address and report you to PayPal

Using it for illegal activities will get it limited. Trust me, like e-whoring and what not. Using fake information is also a sure fire way of getting it limited. If your not verified don't send or receive tons of money at once. Get payments in increments of like $50 if you have too.
