Vouch for this user we did a project together, I would use his service again.

ultragreen - March 18, 2019, 8:58 pm

I have been working with him highly vouch and very fast communication

TouchMe - March 18, 2019, 9:17 pm

vouchy vouch vouch His work is good, and he answers all my stupid questions :P

Hollow™ - March 18, 2019, 10:09 pm

Vouch for this guy, makes the craziest programs you can ever think of. Especially if you're lazy like me. I probably spent over 1k on him over the past year that I dealt with him. You can't find anyone better.

DamienVC - March 18, 2019, 10:28 pm

Vouch for this dude, had a deal with him a few months ago and it was perfectly smooth. Even provided updates on it.

Agent Raigar - March 19, 2019, 12:04 pm

Thank you, everybody. I'm pumped about the new thread and the new design.

Hey Agent, let me know if you're up for my job. Here's the description of it:

I'm seeking to hire a developer that has a really good understanding of packet editing (WPE Pro) for MMORPGs. Knowing C++ and Assembly would be a HUGE plus.

I will be hiring you to rediscover a few exploits for an MMORPG. The exploits get patched and rediscovered all the time with WPE Pro - usually with another method. I will guide them in game to get acclimated to the mechanics of the game so the learning curve is extremely minimum in order to save time (Probably less than an hours work to understand the mechanics).

I will tell you exactly what exploits to look for and explain to you how it was discovered last time before they were patched.

This game is literally an ancient MMORPG that is about 20 years old. You need to have knowledge of C++, assembly, or ample experience in packet editing (WPE Pro) to do this successfully. Game details will be given to you upon hiring. Payment can be arranged in two payments, through a middle man, or a service like Upwork so that you won't have to fear being ripped off.

If this is something that interests you, please message me your Discord ID so we can chat. I'm looking for serious offers only and am willing to work with someone that has proven experience in either game development or just general MMORPG blackhat hacking.

Thanks and let me know if you have any questions.

PS: Strong C++ an Assembly may not be required, but knowing how packets work will be I think. Either way, let me know if this interests you! Thanks :)

Sorry for bumping such an old thread, I could not send you a message due to my low amount of experience on this forum.

I owe you money for your work from years ago, if you could let me know your telegram/insta or anything, let me know.

we did lot of deals together for many c# automation tools, paid you for most of those, but once I needed a < roblox botnet > sorta project, which ended up not making revenue but i'm sure you worked for days on that project and i want to pay you back.
