Thread: Ever Hear a Song out of your Genre and get Hooked? Post it

I'm an ex member of a MCC and spent my life from my early 20s partying with Hell's Angels in Blackpool (UK) beach parties back when I lived there. Because of my influences classic rock and metal has been a passion of mine. That being said, from time to time I hear or re-hear a song and become obsessed and can't stop playing it.

Currently it's Bubbles from TPB (obsessed with this show) with Liquor and Whores:

Previously it's been shit like this:

Post the song you're currently obsessed with.
