I started watching Doom Patrol and I found it hard to get into. Its like DC is trying too hard to be edgy. Is Doom patrol doomed?

Dc comics is overrated, almost everything they do sucks

Thats cold. But it is really hard to disagree with you.

Seems like everything they do is forced, to stay in line with the market

Being wired can be fun and dangerous and so could having sex. At least someone likes this show. When Gotham started it was weird but I loved it. Doom Patrol just does not do it for me. Titans was better I think.

Too bad Gotham is over. Funny enough as time goes on I am kind of, just kind of getting into Doom Patrol.

Trust me, watch every episode out and you'll love every single character. It's human nature to only have one favourite character in a tv show. Per se I only liked nightwing in Titans. Doom Patrol makes you care for every single character present. Trust me the show is excellent.
