Thread: r00t and 3p1c Deleted

Omniscient - March 26, 2019, 7:40 pm

We've lost the long thread about it and of course the database set those groups back but I'm going to delete them again asap.

Breakdown of what's going to happen (again):

All 3p1c+regular will get upgraded into L33t.

All 3p1c+ub3r will just have 3p1c removed.

All r00t and 3p1c features will be placed into Ub3r group.

r00t and 3p1c group will be deleted.

The Diamond of r00t award will be converted to the Ub3r Sapphire award.

The Diamond of r00t award will be renamed to the Diamond of Hell award and become a $20 donation award.

I think that's it. I may do it tomorrow as I'm mentally exhausted from the server move and it's getting late. I don't want to make any mistakes.

Thank you.

Anyway I will be buying the award tomorrow if you do

Bad ass we can get the Black Diamond soon.

BTC - March 26, 2019, 7:45 pm

I like The Diamond of Hell sounds cool ?

Will people eventually be able to purchase Ub3r?

I remember on the last thread there was a discussion about it being subscription based. Is that idea still on the table?

Your joking right? SO I spent money on two seperate upgrades to now be demoted to a regular user at no fault?

Omniscient - March 26, 2019, 8:46 pm

Quote:I remember on the last thread there was a discussion about it being subscription based. Is that idea still on the table?

Considering how exhausted I am and the past few days of chaos I can't say for certainty what I'll do about Ub3r. I want to think on it more.

And btw there are more ub3r than r00t so it's just easier to keep the Ub3 group. You can't argue about the success of the group either. It's like when Coke made New Coke then made Classic Coke then made Classic Coke the regular Coke again. The lesson there, don't do too much coke. :)

Quote:Regardless, it sucks that the site lost 3 days. I guess it could have been worse though. I actually got VERY luck because we almost had a 60 day loss. I have backups on the server on a different drive but so far the datacenter has been shit for access. The choices were few and getting us back online seemed a higher priority than those 3 days lost. But if we were back 60 days I'd fight harder to get that drive online for access. I'm going to setup a cron job to do a weekly off-server backup going forward.

Thanks for getting back to me, I am in support of the subscription based idea, it could solve possible issues in the future with trying to monetize specific groups of people. This way everybody would be grouped together rather than separated, allowing for monetization of all. Even though I know originally you did not want to monetize Ub3rs, thus came out with R00t as an option to monetize those L33t / Regular members who were new to the forum.

Agreed, I like both Ub3r and R00t when compared between all the groups you have created on the forum due to their catchy names. Your decision on which group to keep came down to pure logic / stats, which I respect

More likely planned due to a lot of flame in here

Ub3rs or R00Ts were angry due to some features r00t had and Ub3r didn't. Something like that I didn't mind R00T at all, I can see why UB3Rs didn't like it since they did not get any permission updates but it is a UB3R is a legacy group, it would be cool to had got some new things but the way i see it, we need new users to buy new upgrades. I hope to see R00T come back imo

I use to post a shit ton back in the day. I was a pretty active user, kind of fallen off though. Pretty sure ub3r isnt invite only anymore right?

Yea, same had to be done for me. I had to be reviewed for ub3r. Cant even remember when i got it honestly, been so many years.

Yay, I can't wait to get the new award, probably tmrw once I go to bank :). Thanks for all the hard work and not leaving us ub3rs to the wind.

I'd like to see more donation awards too. I'm more likely to be able to donate 25 bucks a couple times than I can 50 all at once yknow?

Either way good job, can't wait to see where HF is going

Lavish Living - March 27, 2019, 12:23 pm

For those wondering - the black diamond is now obtainable via the buy awards page

I wish we could go back to the old system where you had to apply for ub3r, ever since I bought l33t I have been wanting to get in to the ub3r usergroup.

spyglass - March 27, 2019, 1:17 pm

There was quite alot of leets that bought epic for the trustscan access and not just the userbar.
The fact of the matter is even though epic is gone leet members can still access the trustscan now.
If Omniscient decides to upgrade those that had leet and epic to uber then happy days because most will be old users and it puts us all in one group where we all belong. Much like what he had to do with root.
No member is better than the next man (No matter what userbar or rep or awards you have) and I think the change and downtime over the last few days will unite us all more.
Hopefully once this is over and everyone calms down and excepts the facts he might be able to set hes mind to building a new user group that works for us all.

Maybe a new user group you'd have to meet some really high requirements and be approved? That would be cool haha but he was saying that groups increase the server strain but who knows could be interesting.

If hes removing groups I don't see why he would add them.

Yes I agree with you there, it would be nice to see approval back like it was for uber.

Exactly not sure why people think there isn't a upgrade now. Its just replaced with ub3r pretty much.

I prefer ub3r anyways ?

I would assume so, but probably best to wait for confirmation.

any updates on the people who had L33T+3P1C? omni said they will most likely get ub3r for free. I just make sure if this is going to happen or not. Asking for a friend cuz he's too lazy to login and ask.

Check the date for your "Sapphire of Uber" award. That should be the date you bought it, plus or minus a few days

Omni didn't specify that.

Just that people with L33t + Ep1c = Ub3r.

He would do that later this day.

I hope it's permanent tho :P

Alright well thanks for letting me know. A little upset as I don't like change, but I suppose having a rank that would've eventually cost me much more for $75 or whatever I've put into this site so far is fair enough. :)
