Thread: Ub3r Upgrade Available

Xerotic - March 27, 2019, 2:18 pm

The HF Ub3r upgrade is officially back. You can head over to HF's upgrade page to find it:
<https://hackforums.net/upgrade.php>

Your account must meet certain criteria before you can upgrade to Ub3r. These include:

L33t Membership - An account must be L33t to be upgraded to Ub3r

100 Posts

50 Popularity Points

60 days since you joined HF

Once you have met all of the requirements for Ub3r then you can purchase your 1 year upgrade via CoinPayments. You can choose between a variety of crypto currency options. HF is not accepting Stripe or other payment methods at this time for Ub3r upgrade. It may take a few minutes for CoinPayments to process your payment. Please allow some time to pass before contacting Staff.

If you are already an Ub3r member then you can upgrade others to the group. The member you are upgrading must meet the Ub3r upgrade requirements and then you can easily upgrade them from the same page where you would upgrade your own account: <https://hackforums.net/upgrade.php>

When you upgrade to Ub3r you will be in the usergroup for 1 year. At the end of that year period either 1 of 2 things will happen:

If you were a Permanent L33t member: you will go back to L33t status.

If you were a 6-month Subscription L33t member: you will go back to a non-upgraded status.

The Ub3r group does grant the Sapphire of Ub3r award which will remain on your account even after your 1 year Ub3r subscription expires.

The cost of the 1-year subscription is $25.

Enjoy.

EDIT: If you were Ub3r group before the 1-year subscription existed then you will retain your permanent Ub3r membership. You will not be reverted to a 1-year subscription.

Houtarou - March 27, 2019, 2:26 pm

Glad to see confirmation on the permanent membership for pre-existing Ub3rs. Was just talking about that in the other thread.

Think the subscription-based upgrades are the right way to go, but only time will tell how successful they are.

PerfectStorm - March 27, 2019, 2:27 pm

There we go. Here come some more ub3r's! welcome

Mom - March 27, 2019, 2:27 pm

That's great news for previous Ub3rs, a question I had before as well when this change was made.

TCP - March 27, 2019, 2:27 pm

My suggestion is to make two options for Ub3r just like L33t, one permanent and one 1-year only

These two sentences are so hypocritical together. You're saying that you're glad your Ub3r is permanent, and simultaneously think subscription-based upgrades are the right way to go (considering your own Ub3r is permanent).

More meant to phrase it as being glad to see confirmation on the topic of pre-existing Ub3r membership, but oh well.

I think it is only fair that those who previously purchased a permanent upgrade should keep it. Subscription-based moving forward makes sense though.

Would pay the yearly membership if I had to, but can't complain about the fact that I don't.

What's the point tbh

Two upgrade options, one 1-year and one permanent would only benefit hf

Good question. I feel like invoking a self-ban no matter how long, should preserve/stop your ub3r memberships subscription time. This would still give people with ub3r an actual reason to come back after giving themselves a ban. This could already be in place though, I don't know.

Tutelary - March 27, 2019, 3:36 pm

I feel like if there were a $150 permanent option for Ub3r that would entice people to buy it. They would have to weigh the option of whether they still plan to be active on HF past 6 years.

Otherwise, I feel the current options will create a consistent revenue stream for the site.

Zeus - March 27, 2019, 3:40 pm

Just wondering what would happen to us previous r00t members would we still have to keep paying every year to keep it or do we keep it perm too. Thanks

That sounds like a terrible plan. $150? Dude that's a lot of money for a subscription lol. Maybe $50 - $60 for permanent ub3r & $25 - $30 for 6months.

1000 posts, 500 pop and 90 days I think would keep Ub3r as a cool group to be a part of and I think there would only be a lot of active members who upgraded to it at that point.

With such easy requirements, I think you run the risk of people upgrading to increase their odds of scamming. Just my opinion on it though ?

Let's say you bought a 6 month l33t subscription

In month 2 you upgrade to 1 Year of UB3R.

Does the remaining 4 months of L33T get added to the 1 Year of UB3R (so you get 12 + 4 months of UB3R).

OR

At the end of the 1 year UB3R do you get your 4 months remaining of L33T

OR

Do you just forfeit the remainder of your L33T subscription when upgrading to UB3R, which would be totally unfair imo as you have to be L33T to purchase UB3R.

I can confirm this, I pmed Xerotic yesterday and he told me that indeed previous root members count as permanent ub3rs now.

Wait so if you purchase 6 month L33t and now want to upgrade to Ub3r, you can do so for a year however after that you then have to purchse L33t again and Ub3r again in order to obtain another year of Ub3r? Why not just allow Ub3r to continue using Ub3r with a recurring subscription?

I understand that the 6 month L33t membership will have expired by the end of the Ub3r membership but I don't see it being fair that they then have to purchase L33t permanent and Ub3r once the Ub3r has expired, just looks like an unnecessary extra expense.

Glad I still have permanent uber :)

Then don't buy the ub3r upgrade until your l33t membership expires lol

You will need to be l33t to upgrade to Ub3r. I'm not sure why people buy the 6 month l33t upgrade when it's only $10 more for the permanent one.

I assume some just want to use HF short-term. Which is why I offer a 6-month membership.

This is still new to HF the subscription model. This is how I want to do it but that doesn't mean there won't be adjustments such as providing opportunities to lock-in upgrades such as I33t. But I think what I want for Ub3r is 1 year payments only. What I may consider is allowing those with I33t subscriptions to become permanent I33t at a discount.

That seems pretty fair to me. I wish there were slightly harder requirements to upgrade to ub3r though.

What are your thoughts on making vendors a subscription? I definitely think everyone in the Vendor group would pay for it considering they are making money off marketing their product on HF.

Haha, I think that ship has sailed, considering the last 7 days....

Glad that we are going back to the original usergroups. :D
I was getting confused with all this stuff now.

duck - March 28, 2019, 5:53 pm

What if i am not Ub3r and I want to donate to someone?
Do I need to be Ub3r first? fuck....

On the upgrade page:

Can Rate Threads - should be removed from the list since this isn't available anymore.

Sorry, my OCD is twitching ? ?

Wow, this is awesome.

I've always wanted to be uber.

Canadian - March 30, 2019, 9:28 am

I think I lost my L33t and 3p1c. When I bought them they weren't temporary, they were both purchased over a year ago I believe. I just noticed my username is blue so I went to check my group membership and they're both gone :/

Nvm: I just remembered getting Ub3r meant an upgrade from L33t.
