hi, i've all bustabit strategies.

i spent more than 4,000$ on scripts. i can show you my scripts folder with over 80 different scripts right now.

and most of them can't handle 1 day before losing.

what makes your script better? what is the x of it? does it have leaps or median? im interested, and if you can send me a vouch copy ill leave a detailed review if it lasted at least 1 hour only.

Could you kindly do one more Vouch copy? I've been inspecting and working through Bustabit for quite a while. I'll surely post a detailed review within 12 hours, running it through multiple situations and simulations and going thoroughly through it. If your claim is true, I would support it with proper statistics and calculations, so others can benefit from this opportunity of yours. :)
