Dude, i am in no way defending hsde, but the guy you are supporting for and working with, who is now banned for scamming/false advertising, sold his shit settings on primedice and called it an exploit and charged from 150$ up to 5000$ yes you read that right, 5000$ for settings on a gambling site.

I would seriously stay as low as i could in discussions like this if i were you. :D

Stopped being his support before he was banned since he was clueless. I was defending him because it worked for me, would you have rather me say that it doesn't work?

You were still in his thread defending him and supporting him the 31th, which is the date you made the post i quoted, but it does not really matter, i just found it funny how you said it was stupid to pay 65$ for a script for a gambling site when you were supporting for someone who charged from 150$ up to 5000$ for settings for gambling sites aswell.

Except according to him he needed to add our seed and ip for the "vuln," which I believed. If you have nothing productive to contribute to this thread, then gtfo. Really ain't hard.

Thanks for the -3 Banana :D If you get caught lying and helping a scammer you can always play the victim and -rep people. :D

Well done ?

"Lying"

Clearly you need to read retard. I -rep people if either a) they are retarded, or b) if i don't like them. In your case, it's both a and b. Hf replying to yourself since children like you LOVE getting the last word in.

You were clearly lying when saying you stopped supporting for him before he got banned, its hard to deny when people can just his look at his salesthread to see you ride the scammers cock and defend him to the last. :D

And im not replying to myself, you are clearly reading my posts but i do understand that it must feel bad to have to unignore me to read what i have to say, its almost like you want the last word. ?
