I gave a user neutral rep once for shitposting and a couple weeks later I got neg repped. The guy upgraded and went down his list of popularity in search of revenge.

I was actually quite impressed by his perseverance I can't even be mad.

This is what I did after upgrading but I didn't upgrade just to neg the people back hahahaah, it was just kind of a plus I guess lmfao

Astrogen - March 31, 2019, 4:33 pm

I just got neg for providing a low price gfx service lol, and he also has a gfx thread. Maybe he got triggered for the low price and neg repped me.

Wait till I get an upgrade, I'll come back for you.

I didn't neg you because of your price, I neg repped you because your design is so bad and you still label it "high quality" now that's misleading.

mod - March 31, 2019, 5:19 pm

im gonna upgrade to +rep u !! scam. - March 31, 2019, 5:21 pm

omegalul.

are you high? there's no high in my thread lmao.. you've got some low-quality pair of eyes there bro. maybe you should have an ophthalmologist check yours?

yeah this thread is pretty pointless, who cares.

my eyes are fine dude, all you did was drop shadows and solid color backgrounds, 0 effort.

there is literally 0 quality in that.

and the funny thing is, you even pmed me about it and I told you it was the "quality" that was misleading, and here you're trying to mask it and act like it's because of your low price hate to break it to you, but there are way better thread designs for free bud.
