Thread: How I could hack a "Moodle" ?

SIM-4189175 - April 4, 2019, 1:07 pm

Im just a newbie, like a thing to put maybe a keylogger idk.

There are a few exploits you can use against Moodle servers, however, I have had no luck so far :)
Seem to be pretty tied and locked down.

Having said that though, there is always a way.

Its a system for schools to deliver learning material online, guessing the kid is trying to not do his homework xD

This depends on the version of the Moodle. In some older versions , there was a vul in the log tab.
But without the proper knowledge, I suggest you not to try doing anything you would regret later.
Never stop learning :D

Only Moodle 3.2 and below have exploits. Moodle is now on 3.9.

Like what Noodlez said, it will be strongly determined by the version.

See this forum post for checking the version.
