Thread: Win a spot in Uncut Cartel \(crew\) || 2 spots available || HackerOne based

FBI - April 6, 2019, 9:40 am

Like the title says, I will be giving away 2 spots to the Uncut Cartel. This comes with a custom userbar, just post your HackerOne profile below (or PM me).

The winners will be chosen by highest score or best bug bounty (quality over quantity). Contest ends one week from today on saturday, April 13th. ?

Soo no members on HF are actual hackers? Oh the irony.

I think the bigger issue is people not being part of HackerOne.

There's hundreds of ethical hacking companies out there and the chances that a user on HF is part of the specific company you listed AND has read the post AND is looking for a crew to join, is pretty slim when you put it all together. You may get a couple people however no more than a few I would imagine.

HackerOne is the biggest bug bounty website out there right now. So the odds of 200,000+ hackers, a few being on HackForums seemed decent.

Funny thing is that no one is actually reading the post.

Good shit for hosting the giveaway and good luck with finding someone who's actually on hackerone.
