Thread: Mentor group have its own color?

I just think it would be a nice addition. Nothing important, just 'fun'.

If Omni wanted mentors to have their own color, he'd include that in 2011 when he made them. ?

He has changed his mind about a lot of things he implemented in 2011. :)

I think Bright Pink would be a good fit.

Give them green because they'll look good in it imo.

Yes but that rarely applies to site style/layout.

I doubt this will happen. I don't see a reason for Mentors to get a unique color as it's more of an honorary group.

That being said, it would be cool to see the 2016 colors & UB's back on admins. Bright pink looked good :)

Mentors will not get a custom color. Less colors for usernames is better.
