Thread: njRAT + Revenge-RAT without NOIP or DNS

NYANxCAT - April 9, 2019, 8:44 am

LimeBuilder

I'm using Revenge-RAT for some testing and I don't like to use NOIP so I modified it to use Pastebin just like LimeRAT.

I created a program to let you use Pastebin feature without compiling the source code.

You should stick with this format ==>> <https://pastebin.com/raw/jq3S1vHn>

Don't forget to create an account so you can modify your ip port key

Builder and client are both 2.0 Framework.

they might delete a base64 rat or some malware codes. but if you just use it for 127.0.0.1:333 they won't delete it even with requests. it's not suspicious at all

You need a DNS or Proxy that port-forwards to use on a pc you own outside of your own network.
You can pm if you need more info

Can i get a link of LimeBuilder-NJ becaouse both of them are down.

QU?CKSILVER - April 13, 2020, 7:33 am

The pastebin contains the domain and the port anyway, you're still vulnerable to domain blacklisting... Unless you use static IP alone..
