Thread: NSFW \(18+\) section

Celibate - April 10, 2019, 1:51 pm

I shouldn't have to explain why this section would make a perfect addition to the forums, and I won't. Instead, I'll explain why we need it. People like me. I can't unfortunately partake in those kinds of activities, with that being said it would be nice if I could interact in educational threads on that subject. Plus, I mean, who wouldn't want one?

I hope you'll show support for this suggestion by posting below, thanks.

This is exactly why it's a bad idea.

There is already a section for relationships and those kinds of things.

I mean I can't argue with you on that. I don't know man, I was just thinking as a community whole.

It's a commonly shared interest so it's no question if the sub would be active or not.

IF you really want this stuff, just go watch porn like fr, why would u want ur phone/computer screen spammed with weird shit all day?

Celibate - April 10, 2019, 2:04 pm

Y'all convinced me this probably isn't going to happen. Noted thanks.

Back in the day we used to have the "XXX Adult only hitler was here" section. It was always dead. and a huge liability.
