Thread: HF Vendors

TouchMe - April 11, 2019, 10:38 am

This guy has literally threatened his customer, and has insulted me for commenting on him threatening said customer.

What standards are vendors and staff being held to because this is literally ridiculous and the most unprofessional thing I've ever seen

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5948065> Jombah threatening a customer

Jombah - April 11, 2019, 10:41 am

Lol what a retard, you're the one posting random shit on my threads then insulting me in pms, then get this butt hurt when I respond to you?

If you're going to talk big then make sure you close the thread that you made speaking about how poor & lazy you are :P

As I told you earlier, you have too much time on your hands. Imagine making a thread everytime someone insults you.

Edit: You really think I'm working with a moderator? Let's be real now.

My only message to you, which was a reply to your message

What even is going on? Are u seriously trying to call out a staff member for no reason? even tho he is vouching the method works. Which means what the fuck are you doing?

Yes when the same staff member that vouches for a product, removes my post on that thread, which was totally legitimate. And Idc about the staff member, this guy is fucking ridiculous and should not be a vendor

I think you should take a walk to clear your mind. Dude thinks a mod is giving me a fake vouch as well as Enlilwolf.

How do you know he removed your post?

Why didn't you get a warning %? Kinda weird

If he didn't then he'll say he didn't :p and exactly...

Anyways, Idfc. Vendors do not have the right to threaten and insult their customers.

You don't always receive warnings from posts being removed.

Riyu - April 11, 2019, 10:55 am

You're accusing the Eagle who is the biggest anti-ebook staff member ever of being corrupt???

HAHAHAHAH

It's already been established that Jombah is an asshole to people.

If people continue to buy things from him then that's on them at this point.

TouchMe - April 11, 2019, 10:56 am

Ya'll niggas are missing the point. I edited the post, so focus Lol Bad vendor bad

It was Bob White, I can't find the post

Bluffer - April 11, 2019, 10:59 am

One of you put the other on your ignore list and the end. Probably wasn't a good idea to make this thread.

flavoral - April 11, 2019, 10:59 am

How to get closed 101:

1. Accuse a whole usergroup cuz a product of one user didn't work for you or you got scammed by them.
2. Accuse a Staff of being corrupt.
3. Accuse Omni of not banning scammers.

You got 1 step left fam ?

This user doesn't have a contract with him so any critique he had about isn't valid sooOoOoOoo

Zexi - April 11, 2019, 11:00 am

Your post probably got deleted because you were sales trashing.

Intimidating, threatening, and insulting your customers should not be allowed, And very much should be enforced by staff.

Yeah honestly lol. If you buy an eBook or sell an eBook on this forum you are the definition of a dumbfuck. Those are the people that want to make money without having any skills at anything so they just write some shitty guide that they used to use and then throw in bullshit to make it look unique.

Here is a tip OP: don't buy eBooks.

It's really just common sense.. why would anybody sell you a method of making thousands for $20.00 when they could just use their own method and make much more than just $20.00 while also saturating any valid methods of making money they have. Just use your head and stay away from idiots that think they're smart because they got lucky lol..

Yepppp, hopefully by the end of 2019 I'll have learned all I need to know about them. At least Python because there is just too many ways of making money once you actually learn a programming language. Good luck on learning them :)

Maskin - April 11, 2019, 12:54 pm

I care too little about the beef you 2 have but I find it somewhat entertaining...

Jombah - April 11, 2019, 2:35 pm

Just to clarify, OP didn't buy anything from me. Not sure why he even bothered posting on my thread.

EUParty - April 11, 2019, 2:39 pm

why are you even involved in this?

if the actual customer has an issue with him then let him post a thread about it.

Cameron - April 11, 2019, 2:46 pm

You need to understand that being a Vendor means nothing, pretty much anyone who applies can get accepted. I've seen a few Vendors around with 0 B-Rating. You shouldn't consider them any more HQ than some random Ub3r, L33t or regular member.

This.

I saw the 0 B rating today as well. I thought vendors were vetted?

I thought so too originally. Omni just marketed the group extremely well. When people get accepted into some "exclusive" group it makes them more willing to cough up the $100 than if it was openly available to everyone.

I know lol, all he did was claim Eagle and another members vouches were fake, then he quoted some posts from a month ago. Really have no idea what he was trying to accomplish.

Hah - April 11, 2019, 5:51 pm

You can already tell that Vendor is going to be the new cancer group of HF. Finally Ub3r won't be in the firing line.

Yeah, Omni complained how entitled Ub3rs acted. Wait until all the kids who bought $100 upgrades start acting like the world owes them everything.

Someone attempting to sell their signature space for $3 really can not insult me, sorry but feel free to try again.

Edit: I looked at some of your threads and it's clear who the basement dweller is. Don't want to push you any closer to "blowing your brains out" so I think it's best I don't speak to you.

I could find OP's post on my thread if I wanted to but I genuinely could not care any less about anyone who has posted here.

Quote:You need to understand that being a Vendor means nothing, pretty much anyone who applies can get accepted.

Not true.

Also, OP had no Contract with Vendor. He's now closed, which I'm sure was predicted by many of you.

Quote:I saw the 0 B rating today as well. I thought vendors were vetted?

I have criteria I look for to approve Vendors. It's none of your business what that criteria is.

Quote:You can already tell that Vendor is going to be the new cancer group of HF. Finally Ub3r won't be in the firing line.

Not as long as Ub3r such as yourself make such comments.
