Kik or snapchat? Could you maybe send me some more information about your method please?

You don't have to tell me the exact way of how you're doing it if you don't want.

Coming back to eWhoring after 5 months of being lazy

i was about to say congrats but then i took a closer look into this photo...

<https://imgur.com/SCpyatb>

And the photoshop work u do is fine I'd give you that...

But when you look at it with a keen eye 1 can easily see it's fake...

So to be sure my friend's got this tool... a nice tiny software he coded that uses machine learning and othe forensics techniques to recognize photoshop

And no wonder.... It's fake....

But nice job the water mark it looks looks good...
(the tool marked anomalies and.... It's fake) but for mr what i noticed were the frame and adges of the bills....

so.... nice job not good enough.....

It's horrible to see people like u trying to scam and.... On the forum...

-maybe you did make it but all the money is in the bank/.... idk next time instead of being either lazy either..... why lie

Just take a video/GIF.... (yes deep fakes are common this days but u know it's harder)

OK idk if the last pic was fake/... The program got it wrong... (very unluckily...)

I'd take time out of my busy day because it's annoying when people lie....

Still not sure -cuz why would u post a photoshopped pic anyway...

But you've got the benefit of the doubt...

(it's fine if you were lazy/.... The get the money from the bank or something but why post fakes....

Just....

Maybe my friend software is wrong it's still in beta but up until now it seems to be reliable so... The first pic i can say with confidence that it's fake...)

Well anyway congrats on the earnings

.... -and u know....

And yes i can get real annoyed when i see obvious fakes and obvious scamming and... With u i wasn't sure you'd use the photo to scam/....

So...

Nice picture of your Canadian money ? There is not that many people in Canada, as well I love the metadata.

Perhaps you should be careful if you enter this field, take your privacy and security a bit more serious :) As well blockchain is a shit wallet.

Most definitely is. I would suggest using a better wallet with more advanced security features. Of course OP is not holding a substantial amount to even worry much. But it is always something to move forward towards. Security, privacy, all very important when you are doing illegal stuff. Do not make yourself think this is legal, especially in Canada ?

I'm not tryna shit on blockchain though, great web wallet, great for less technologically advanced users also. Just a shitty wallet if you care about security. But just looking out for fellow members. Not like bitcoin is very OP sec in the first place, but still there are precautions you can take.

hey thanks! I have found it quite easy as probably 2/3 of the money I have gotten from there is auto pilot.

Thanks for the suggestion! I've been reading about better wallets just there are so many I didn't know what to choose. Blockchain seemed the easiest and I don't meet massive amounts of money in it.

If you'd like to suggest me one I'd be happy to try it out!

If something can be easily proven then why not....

That's exactly what i want to see... ?

(BTW my friend updated the software that allowed me to check before I've posted and i checked the image again and it shows a lower chance the pic was fake... but stil pretty high 86.8%)

so yeah maybe fake maybe not it's very unlikely the gif was fake) it's just annoying man... if you see something you think is fake don't be afraid to call it out.... it should be easily proved if it's not a fake/.....
