Thread: HF Hack Game Update

Omniscient - April 15, 2019, 10:32 am

We are expecting to do some heavy updating to the game this week. We will be adding shop items, updating how Crews are integrated, and begging new PVP and game play elements.

It's time we do the reset too. That means all levels, game cash and XP will be set to 0.

Integration with Bytes is not going to take place until the game is stable and fully tested. We don't want to make any mistakes which might force a rollback. I anticipate we're only a couple months away from Bytes integration, maybe sooner if development isn't interrupted.

Thank you.

Very Complicated - April 15, 2019, 10:34 am

Sorry to sound like a noob but where can I find/play this game?

Morpheus - April 15, 2019, 10:34 am

Oh cool !

It seems very nice, I'll check it now.

1 week ago without any functionality available.

Omniscient - April 15, 2019, 10:43 am

It's still in Beta form and we don't even have any official links to it on site which I suspect will be changed today.

Sick to see this implemented on HF here, I'm gonna destroy you plebs with my n00b tool!

does this mean that after the bytes integration you will reset the stats again? so there are two resets before the game fully ready? or after this one reset we can continue playing without a reset again.

I can't be sure. It really depends on how this develops and if we make any mistakes that warrant a reset. Game is still in Beta and still subject to a reset whenever we require it.

SoulZeh - April 15, 2019, 12:52 pm

I literally cannot wait for this game to be fully released.

Mr. Robot - April 15, 2019, 1:15 pm

The CrewCP integration will help us consolidate the game and crew pages into gamecp.php. It will make more sense once you see it. ?

I've been waiting for this, thank you for all the work done towards it. It's starting to remind me of Torn City, an old text based browser RPG. I used to play it often.

final reset will be right before the bytes integration.

I was waiting for an update. Oh, I'm so excited for the PvP. @PerfectStorm , dad since you have a ton of bytes now, you don't mind if I hack my way to win some of them, do you? ?

Agent Shark - April 17, 2019, 4:50 am

I figured a reset was bound to happen. Exciting to see the game come to fruition.

CyberPhunk - April 17, 2019, 6:01 am

You're a special snowflake for thinking you are the first person to come up with that concept. ???

NoSuchAgency - April 18, 2019, 1:52 pm

Since we'll be getting reset again when bytes are integrated, what about removing wait times so we can grind for fun and test for bugs? I tend to get distracted once I can't do anything for like 3 minutes.

Ugh, it's always been my plan to integrate the game with Bytes. That's just something very obvious. Like if I eat breakfast tomorrow are you going to tell me it was based on your suggestion too?

I'm contemplating disabling the captcha I suppose. At least until it's officially released.

Sorry it's still offline. I have not had the time to give this my full attention the past few days.

Where is it possible to get crews information?

The Crew CP is being integrated into Game CP. Until it's enabled again there is no access.

Awesome to hear. Have you thought about doing a day 1 roll out - so on official launch possibly giving some sort of extra to represent they were here for the day launch. It could encourage people to all be online at some point during that 1 day (as long as it was announced early on).

Or possibly something such as reach - level - before this date. Encourages people to get stuck in and addicted early.

Not rushing this update. There are a few things I want to be looked at very closely. Less mistakes is more important than rushing this.
