i will be joining the NA servers, coming from EUW, anyone has experience with where it is harder to play at?

NA is easier to climb in then EUW.

Especially high Elo in NA is a joke.

Yo bro, you fancy playing with me? I'm on EUW, fed up of having to play with troll teams... I just had a game with garen support...

It's fairly easy to climb on the NA server. I've personally climbed upto Diamond III on NA whereas I'm struggling to cross Plat II right now on SEA.

Gameplay in NA is better than this in EUW

People are better

It should be more or less the same

Wouldn't have a clue, I play on Oceania servers and fuck its easy lol, D1 atm going for the challenger.

Us Australians aren't too good at league.
