Add another email address to your PayPal account. Easy as that.

I only just found out about this an hour ago when one of my partners told me:

<https://www.paypal.com/businessprofile/settings/email>

Add another email or send them a request for the amount.

Either request the amount, give him your PayPal.me link or tell him to write the email instead of copying it, worked for me every single time I came across that problem, same goes for Amazon if they get the same error.

Tell them to write it instead of copy and paste, happens to me and that fixes it

Set up a PayPal.me link, it's way better than emails.
