I'll take a vouch copy if you want

BrandonBoyd - April 25, 2019, 8:05 am

If you are new selling something what people want to see its someone testing your method or at least earnings,

Good Luck! :)

Was going to buy until I saw his "Proof of earning" could just be money piled up that he had prior to this, As soon as he gives a trusted member a vouch copy, and it gets reviews I am going to buy this product.

That's ok, we'll add more proof of earnings soon (5-6 hours probably and not cash). Meanwhile, we're searching for someone to get a vouch copy. Thanks for your interest. ?

Was it because he is your friend? Why don't you give it to someone who will give you a proper review.

This is Bromden's first post in the marketplace in months. Why would he randomly come to the marketplace and ask you for a vouch copy? I can see you're both in the same clan called "Wolfpack" how interesting....

Anyways, mark my words everyone. When "Bromden" comes to leave a review, it's going to be a stellar 10/10 and he'll show how he made $1,000 in 10 minutes.

Wolfpack is a huge group, if you think that just because we're both on the same group his vouch will be "biased", I have nothing to say to you. He's clearly the most reputable user that offered us a vouch copy, that's why we chose him. We wanted someone extremely reputable and Bromden is the most reputable member in this thread.

Your opinion on this matter doesn't matter either, given the fact that you're only 9 days in this website and still managed to open 4 marketplace threads.

Cba reading your wall of text, something that you & I both know, and what everyone reading this thread should know:

1 - Bromden didn't ask YOU for a vouch copy, YOU asked him.

What a petty comment, especially that "cba reading your wall of text". It is a couple sentences, don't act so dumb when you are trying to make a point.

It's amazing how triggered people get after they get exposed ?

GL with the sales, and if you want to call me a multi go ahead, I sell on many forums not just HF lol.

Either way, you need the ebook sale money a lot more than I do

You also did a deal without a contract. I'm sure Omni wouldn't like that ;)

He's the one who refused the contract. Thank you for the advice - I will report him as soon as possible.
