User tried to strongarm by saying he was on this site for 8 years. Then continued to encourage me to NOT use a middle man. I sent the account info and he began hesitating and not paying. So I changed the information.

You both have open scams. Only one of you scammed. The other user stated you blocked him after the RSGP was sent. Is this true?

Here is the proof that he scammed me.

<https://puu.sh/Di4KH/832472f511.png> Bionic seems to be the one who got scammed here. So seems like you are just disputing due to the fact you scammed him and are trying to create some confusion.

I have personally dealt with Bionic in the past and done a few deals with the contract system and even before the contract system was a thing (when it was just reputation system), and it has always been smooth transactions. Sorry to see this happened.

Exactly what he is doing. Sad to see him scam for a simple 35m. Just kinda sad because this looks bad on my account having a deal dispute against it.

My thoughts exactly. All I see is you scamming and blocking him.

OP has proof against him.

Waiting for you to post proof OP.
