Thread: Need to build a portfolio doing free designs

Very Complicated - April 22, 2019, 7:09 pm

If you need any gfx work done, I will be doing free gfx to build my portfolio for a limited time. Reply with what you need done and I'll try to complete all requests.

T.O.S

These are free designs, you can be picky but understand that I have a life, I can't do everything immediately.

I'd like a signature with my name and something alien related, not picky at all so go nuts & feel free to do whatever you want.

CosaNostra - April 25, 2019, 3:58 am

An ava with oldschool style would be nice.

Maybe but I'm warning you, it won't be high quality. Thread designs take a lot of work.

A thread design and signature would be nice (see signature). If not, no worries. I know it's a bit of a chore.

I'm thinking of changing my avatar. Let's see what you come up with. Would love if it's related with Tom Hardy on Taboo/Peak/Blinders or anyone from True Detective. Don't limit yourself to that if you want.

Thank you

When you get a chance wanna do a avi for me? Something to do with "trazadone". If you don't know what it is, it can be found on google.
