Easy to catch, not everybody knows how to operate that machine.

Elweth - April 23, 2019, 8:52 pm

That might not be a very good idea.

Dryer_Lint - April 23, 2019, 9:37 pm

This is a novel case, I've never heard of anything like this happen before, not ever!

They caused a great deal of damage to that building with the excavator.

I wonder if they got caught.

Storm-Byte - April 24, 2019, 1:25 am

Driving around with an ATM on top of your van is sure to raise suspicion.

PerfectStorm - April 25, 2019, 1:42 pm

That's such a dumb idea. They're going to be hit with fraud charges, and they will have to pay for damages.

They're getting hit with a LOT more than just fraud, probably stole that excavator too and the trucks prob stolen too. That's big time and a lot of charges. How do ATMs not have trackers in them? or do they? >.>
