Edit/Update 20 hours after money sent: Received message that he doesn't have BTC at the moment. Waiting on BTC.

Edit/Update 40 hours after money sent: Offered me a refund, but then when I asked for refund because I found someone else that would do the exchange, he said that it is impossible due to funds already being extracted. Also told me to take this post down. Very weird and sketchy. Was expecting a smooth/fast transaction, but instead I get this. Feel like my money is being held hostage. Will update with when I have more info.

You need to stop posting this on my profile before you get banned for sales trashing. I have MULTIPLE customers that have had to wait for me to re-up on bitcoin that can vouch for me . They have sent me Paypal/venmo/cashapp and ALL of them get their payments when I get my hands on my product. You are no judge here to be dictating in MY thread how I conduct my business sir.

I have plenty on people who have waited way more than you have. YOU also have to remember that I have a life too , I'm not on . hackforums 24/7 , I have a life. I have things to do , I have more projects on my mind than just being a currency exchanger , I have a full time job. YOU and others don't take that into consideration when dealing with CE. I have kept you updated the whole entire time via PM. I told you when I get more BTC from my supplier it would be instantly sent WHICH IS WHAT I JUST NOW DID.

So you don't need to be keeping hour-tabs on me and trying to SALES TRASH my thread and portray my as some low quality currency exchanger. I deal with hundreds of messages , contracts and PM's on discord as well as IRL stuff I'm only ONE human , not a robot. I try my best to make everyone happy but that clearly is impossible according to you sir.

"Very weird and sketch" "Feel like my money is being held hostage"

I have MULTIPLE people who can vouch for me that I have held HUNDREDS of their dollars over night whether a PP hold or just me not having the funds at the moment but they have trust in me I will do right by them WHICH I ALWAYS HAVE. Don't come attacking me on my thread when you know NOTHING about who I am , my history as a CE on Hackforums and overall my great service and experience said by many. Now apologize to me.

Thank you duepi,

You had to wait 48 hours for your PP funds to clear but I set the proper expectations with you and you received your money and we understood each other 100% correct? Please read the users post above me claiming I am sketchy and holding his funds hostage please explain to him , he is over exaggerating everything right now.

True, guys calm down, everything is okay, trouble always can happen, you are a serious exchanger, no doubt about it.

Anyway I think all is now resolved from you and him

I hope it will not complain about the amount since btc dropped just now lol
