Is there anyway to get the contracts removed or disabled? I had a guy fuck me over after buying a license key from me and now my b-rating looks like shit. Wtf..

I've had the same person create multiple contracts and dispute them all, give them all bad comments.. Just because I didn't reply for 20 minutes because I was making some food. ?

It needs a lot of work done.

All you can do is contact the user and ask to change the b-rating.
