I am currently sitting at about 7.5k$ a month with the methods i will be selling in this thread.

There is a total of 6 money making private methods.

The net profit you can get with minimum effort and time spending is about 750$

So you make 7k a month, yet you need to sell 6 eBooks for $40?

My point is, if you make all that money, isn't selling eBooks on a forum for a measly $40 a waste of time? If you were making that amount monthly, it would be, but you're clearly not.

I'd take a vouch, will write a detailed review and go in depth. However I'm suspicious like everyone else, why you're selling the ebooks for $40 if you're making 90,000 dollars a year at 19.
