Thread: Anyone interested in this Insta?

trazadone - April 26, 2019, 2:15 pm

The @ is "bitcoin_thedog"

Anyone interested in offering me anything for it? I'm looking to get my account upgraded and use whatever is left over to invest into some BAT.

Price: $100 obo? ?

*There are no followers currently because I removed them all and was just going to shut the account down until I realized someone here might be interested in it.

Sorry but this account has $0 in value.

Unless the name is somehow something famous or something that I'm unaware of..

Any and every account name has some sort of value to someone.

If it's of no value to you feel free to pass over this thread. If someone is interested I'm entertaining any offers.

You'd be correct in saying every account name has some sort of value to someone.

But, if someone were to be interested in this, I highly doubt they'd even pay $5. It's not a name which is sought after or was very difficult in getting hold of, which normally determines the price of how much someone would pay.

Hopefully "bitcoin_thedog" will find this thread and want his matching Instagram name.

I believe it will sell for a decent price to someone who wants to build the profile up.

With bitcoin becoming more popular I'm sure someone will want it eventually. It will remain for sale until then. Appreciate the input.

Haha, jokes. I've seen worse @'s go for higher.

Appreciate your low offers but lets be reasonable here.

name one @ worse than this that went for higher.

Astrogen - April 26, 2019, 4:17 pm

It doesn't look that good imo. It would be better if you got bitcoindog or something like that.

Zoo - April 26, 2019, 4:22 pm

I mean you have an underscore and you have "thedog" which hasn't really got any relevance to Bitcoin?? Themoon would have more relevance..

It's like me trying to sell pancake_thepotato

trazadone - April 26, 2019, 4:23 pm

If some of these are being sold: hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5936491

I'm sure this one is worth more than $1

Most of them are short, don't contain any special characters and most are dictionary words..

Don't forget to register these too..

bitcoin_thecat
bitcoin_theelephant
bitcoin_thegiraffe
bitcoin_thepony
bitcoin_thedolphin

The first guy who chimed in wasn't trying to @ you, he is being honest. It's not worth much! Good luck selling! :)

Heart - April 26, 2019, 5:59 pm

Damn this is some straight heat, Verdict would probably want it.

carlhvh - April 26, 2019, 8:10 pm

Why would somebody pay $100 for an account with literally no followers, likes or even posts?
:thunk:

Appreciate his input for sure but everything has a price to someone. Even if it takes a minute and someone comes along with a even semi decent offer it's acceptable.

It happens. People like certain names and someone probably will eventually want it so I will keep it listed.

Just a number. Any reasonable offer will be entertained.

Imagine being salty about pixels on a screen.

It's like anyone who has something to say about it is just mad af LOL. If you don't like the @ feel free to read the next thread. If you like it feel free to make me a reasonable offer. The $100 is just a number. No reason for so much salt. I know this @ is worth something to someone and I'm fine with having it for sale for a while. I've seen worse @'s for $20-$40 but because an "upgraded" member is selling it, everyone seems to respect the number. The negs and insults don't really bother me.

It sounds like you paid for this handle when you were stoned or something and now you're desperately trying to unload it for $$$$? ? ?

You're trying to make money off something that holds no value. There's nothing special about the name. It literally makes no sense and it even has an underscore.

Either way. The @ is for sale for any reasonable price regardless of how many red apples the salty people in this thread give me.
