Hello Guys,

In my town a girl is selling very cheap nike, puma, tommy, lacoste etc clothes/bags/shoes, for example for t-shirt 10euro, shoes 15 eu , gym suit hugo boss 40 euro, if shes selling so cheap then how much does she pays to buy them ? Do You guys have any ideas where we can get those clothes even cheaper / evtl. same price ? I mean "branded" fakes/replicas :)

Thanks

Use Chinese websites for this type of stuff. Delivery is really long so its better to buy in bulk.

But I'm also letting you know selling Replicas are against the law and you might face the consequences of that broski.

I wouldn't bother selling fakes tbh. Jail time won't be worth it.

They're probably fake and purchased from China for cheap.

Not worth getting the fakes they are just poorly made and look fake half the time. I was gonna get some fake vapormaxs back along but damn they look so bad when they are fake.
