Thread: [New BTC Crash Site \[Needing Beta Testers\]](#)

BitCrasha - April 29, 2019, 12:15 am

Hi all,

Our team has been working on a new variant of BustaBit with additional features, an extensive re-theme and some new unique on-site competitions. 2 BTC was paid to Ryan (former Bustabit owner, alias RHaver) for an official license + Bustabit's V2 source code. This can be confirmed by checking their license web-page at the time of launch of our site, BitCrasha.

This thread was made to find user interest. Users who note they are interested in trying our site will receive an amount of free bits upon launch, as well as a faucet paying out the most bits of all BTC crash sites every 60 seconds! There are no catches. If you are a gambler and own an established YouTube channel with a fair audience, we urge you to make contact with our team to see if you qualify for a large sum of bits to gamble with in return for a livestream / well-made YouTube video.

Thank you,
BitCrasha Team.

I would love to test it out. Don't have much but recently cleared off my YT. Has 400 subs or something.

Great, we have noted this and will inform you as soon as we launch! How active is your account? Was it crypto based also? Thanks for your expression of interest.
