Thread: Testimonials... \(Question\)

Game - May 6, 2019, 8:37 am

So I recently submitted a testimonial and I've not heard anything regarding it being denied or approved and I wanted to know roughly how long it would normally take for such actions to take place?

Are we notified when our testimonial is approved or denied?

Thank you.

Kind regards,
Volt.

Omni normally does waves of them. Mine took a few months I think?

You'll know if yours is denied if people above your testimonial have the award and you don't.

Just sit back and relax. It can take a while. Mine took at least 3+ months.

Ah okay, I was just confused as I cannot see my own thread since I posted it.

Thanks for the info.

Correct, it is a little bit weird, nothing to worry about.

This is correct.

@OP, Omniscient will get to them. You'll have to be patient a little longer :)
