Thread: Jumping Whale and Moon

Traum - May 7, 2019, 8:45 am

I was playing around with Illustrator and saw some videos on golden ratio logos so I tried one myself!

The whale and moon are all out of these golden ratio circles, only the stars aren't.

Please give me some feedback!

Really like the picture, it looks like you did a lot of work on it. I enjoy the color scheme and the simplicity of the overall piece. Makes a great PFP. Good job OP.

Thanks a lot guys! Didn't take too long too make, but I really like how it turned out. I also enjoyed playing around with the gradients, makes it look way cooler.

I think that its a nice little bit of work but the whale looks to be in pain and suffering. That is not acceptable.

Because of the squinted eye? I actually wanted him too look relaxed... :-/

This is one hell of a logo mate. It's very creative! How did you come up with the idea? I LOVE how it looks and If I could emphasize it more I would. Coloring is on point too. Great job!

Llove everything about this. The colours, the shape, the design <3.

Is someone going to tell me what "PFP" means though? ?

Thanks so much bro! Really means a lot!

I wanted to design a logo fitting my name, and as it's "dream" in German I tried to go for a dreamlike setting. (That's also why it's set at night.)

He just looks like he is in pain because the way the body is the eye is a role in it too yes but i believe its just the way you made its body.

Very interesting design, for some reason a ying and yang impression came to mind upon first glance. I love the simplicity and the peacefulness in this artwork. The whale calmly sleeping and his tail/moon sky perfectly finishing the illustration. Very cool work for just messing around with an idea. Great job OP, keep up to good work!

It definitely gives off great vibes of relaxation, mellow and peaceful attitudes. It makes me imagine sleeping in a hammock under the stars on a nice cool day. Haha keep up the great work, you should definitely stick with the theme and create more relaxed artwork. Looking forward to reviewing more of your illustrations.

Damn, you just gave me a great idea with the hammock theme! I'll be right on it!

Thanks a lot for the inspiration!
