Remember to use a contract while dealing with him. This guy seems alright but he wants everyone to go first. Would recommend using a middleman with the contract too.

Yes we will be using a contract. just contact me, and a middle man is not necessary for a $30 Code.. ?

Not trying to sales trash, but looks at ops profile before deciding to go first with him. He actually only has one completed contract which is private so the details can't be seen. Any other deals were done outside of hf's contract system which isn't allowed.

Do these stack onto existing memberships? I am interested but would rather not go first.

Are there any risk involve? Are the codes carded or SE? Can I use it on my existing account or do I have to create a new account?
