Thread: Bring back lounge award to make the lounge hoppin again

Slim - May 13, 2019, 1:51 pm

Please! I remember in the good old days the lounge was the shit.

Deany - May 13, 2019, 1:53 pm

You can literally just buy it from someone tho

Why buy it when you can just engage in conversation and get rewarded for it

I legit don't see your point.

This is less about me wanting the award (though I do), and more about making the lounge more active again.

it's probably more active than ever
How long you been on HF? In 2012 it was a new thread every 10 minutes

Cunt - May 13, 2019, 2:06 pm

Yeah. The lounge used to be active af.
And i wanna get that award :P

Yeah but the lounge now is like watching five year old re-runs.

It's the same trashposting over and over again and rarely anything new or funny worth interacting with lol.

Maybe everyone just lost their sense of humor.

Banter - May 13, 2019, 2:34 pm

i use to have it, sold it tho. if i came back i might go for it again but then again the lounge turns into a bigger cesspool of shit posting

red - May 13, 2019, 4:01 pm

Release the reward again and require posts in the Lounge to have a minimum of 100 character per response. Is there a way you could just lock the reply-section so it only unlocks the "Post Reply" button after reaching 100>= characters? Might kill the section honestly, dunno how good of a solution that'd be to shitposting lol.

What about LQ users like me who cannot compile a 100 character reply? ?

You'll be banished far, far away from this section until you acquire the necessary knowledge to make junk text look like you are explaining something when in reality you are taking a simple subject and adding tons of useless, impractical information to tag more words along to reach the 100 character limit for post permissions.

Teach me how senpai or i'll just quote someone whenever i reply so it counts as fuck ton more characters instead of how much i have actually posted. 200 IQ

Gary Clark Jr. - May 13, 2019, 4:37 pm

Only if the shit post shit section returns as well.

Well, I'd hope they'd fix such a horrible exploitation of available resources before deploying an update responsible for creating a more pleasant experience for those that make quality posts.

btw I can't keep this up. i am playing runescape dude you're distracting my gains.

Thornzzz - May 13, 2019, 4:42 pm

This thread belongs in the Suggestions and Ideas . Much more likely a Staff member will see it there and respond than here in the lounge.

I can vouch for this.

Mix - May 14, 2019, 4:52 pm

the lounge is always popping so there isnt any need to bring it back plus omni doesn't have any real reason to bring back all the awards

Traum - May 15, 2019, 2:17 am

It's not really going to help the lounge, as people will spam LQ posts everywhere. I remember threads that were 50 pages long just talking about the weather or how you are and what you're doing right now.

I get that people want the award and want to earn it for themselves, but I also get why it isn't back.

That already doesn't work with the awards likeclover or the gift, so I think it wouldn't work for replies either.

Mr. Robot - May 15, 2019, 11:37 am

I wouldn't stress. The HF game is what a lot of people were waiting around for at the time with forum changes happening really fast and drastically. It'll all be great again soon.

Omniscient - May 15, 2019, 11:37 am

Not sure HF needs a super busy Lounge like the old days. I don't want to bring back that award either.

It would be interesting to see the implementation of the premium feature that is the protection of contractual agreements between users.

b?xxy - May 15, 2019, 12:03 pm

Most of the threads were so fake when the lounge award was out, it was hilarious.

It was shitpost central. And I participated.

TCP - May 18, 2019, 7:08 pm

That award is so cool I hope it will make a comeback one day, maybe in the game as an award for some mission

Spaark - May 18, 2019, 7:09 pm

I missed out on the Lounge Head award by a matter of weeks.

I feel like a fool.

Slim - December 4, 2019, 9:28 am

Remember when I suggested this and was shut down? Only for it to come back again and I received no credit?

I sure remember.

I sure remember.

Because you aren't the reason it came back. We have plans upon plans upon plans and certain times when we want to execute those plans.

And on that bombshell, it's time to end - goodnight.
