Thread: BottomNotch has Disputed a Contract with Bull \(4107489 \)

The method was poorly explained and after wasting 2 hours, he then tells me I did this incorrectly. He only tells me I did it wrong after 2 hours after I didn't do something that was "kinda obvious." This wasn't mentioned in the original explaining of the method ?

Screenshot: (REMOVED, I was notified discord chat is not allowed)

Please note the wording of the contract: "If the method does not give BottomNotch the $50 stellar from Blockchain, Bull will refund BottomNotch the $25 BTC."

I do not have the $50 stellar from blockchain.

EDIT: This dispute will be ended in the event I receive a full refund.

Quotes directly from the thread:

Quote: I noticed a that the $50 stellar airdrop from blockchain.info is getting pretty popular now and ofcourse, this is an airdrop worth to participate on.

The only downside is that you can only do this once, yes you can optionally invite your friends and family to join or do other hard work.

Well the hard work is over, i found a way to exploit the give away/airdrop, this won't last forever tho, when the airdrop is finished this method becomes useless until another similair airdrop starts.

As you can see, he was selling an "exploit" to this airdrop.

It is what it is. Please note: I can not show proof I worked on this method for 2 hours because it gives away his method. ?

Stay away is all I can recommend, save your $25.

I was thinking to buy that method after few vouches on his thread. God Dammit !!!!!

How am I gonna become rich now ? Everytime I decide to buy some method, someone disputes for sure.

It is what it is ? I'm going to bring back the method that tells the person to "sell this for $50 to the next sucker."

I asked you to show me that you performed the method as i described it, you then showed me proof that you performed it incorrectly.

I then explained you exactly what you did wrong, you refused to try it properly since you had a lack of time.

You then tried to blackmail me that you would leak, lie and open a dispute.

I then told you Perform it correctly, don't earn and i'll refund you without doubts which i've said on discord aswell before you started to ignore me.

If you don't want to perform it as it should then you can't blame me for not getting the results you wanted.

I'll tell you this again, show me that you performed it like it should have been performed and it stilld doesn't work then sure i'll fully refund you.

And to Staff:

He told me on discord that he would lie claiming i gave him a poor explanation and bad support however i invite you to read the whole conversation i've explained everything very in depth and most likely way to much in depth which resulted the buyer to skip/fast read and perform the method incorrectly.

I don't mind sharing my discord username and password to proof this to staff.

The buyer is acting like a straight up dick for some reason.

I did the method as described then you changed the description. There is no blackmail, no lying, and I agree please someone read the chat logs.

OxyProton - May 13, 2019, 5:29 pm looks like an invalid dispute as you put up no defense. all you cry about is you cannot do the method cause you cant read. thats not bull's fault.

Vanilla - May 13, 2019, 5:34 pm

Discord is irrelevant on here. Money is gone, bull is a piece of shit, end of story. Thank you next

PlugMaster - May 13, 2019, 5:44 pm

Use PM on here next time, staff and Omni won't get involved because it was off site.

At this point, it is what it is. After you've been here on HF long enough there is bound to be a few scammers.

BottomNotch - May 16, 2019, 10:00 am

Glad Bull got banned, another scammer gone from Hackforums.

duplex - May 16, 2019, 10:05 am

Ah damn, he seemed like an alright dude, but piece of shit scammers!!
